

PRESS RELEASE

Some 215,000 passengers expected to travel for the Christmas holidays from 21 December 2007 to 6 January 2008 -

Some 215,000 passengers are expected to travel through the Naples Airport for the Christmas holidays – from 21 December to 6 January 2007: 125,000 on domestic routes, 75,000 on international flights and 15,000 on charter service.

On the average, forecasts call for some 12,600 passengers a day with the heaviest traffic expected for today Friday, 21 December with some 16,000 passengers.

Following are the most popular international destinations for the 2007 Christmas holidays:

London	Paris
Madrid	Barcelona
Prague	Vienna

The Naples International Airport's network of direct flights was significantly increased for the 2007 spring-summer season and now includes 37 international, scheduled destinations, 14 domestic routes and over 50 charter destinations. International traffic figures for 2007 grew 15% over the figures for 2006.

Thanks to significant enhancement of the international flight network and the inauguration of new routes, there was a 15% increase in growth of international traffic in 2007 as opposed to the figures for 2006.

The closing forecast for 2007 is extremely positive: some 5.8 million passengers and a 13% increase over the preceding year.

Naples, 21 December 2007