

AEROPORTO INTERNAZIONALE di NAPOLI
GESAC BAA

PRESS RELEASE

Passenger traffic from 2 to 5 June: roughly 70,000 passengers forecasted for the June 2nd long week-end.

Between 2 and 5 June, approximately 70,000 passengers will utilise the Naples airport: 30,000 on domestic flights, 26,000 on international flights and 14,000 on charter flights. As opposed to the same period last year, there has been a 12% increment.

The day with the heaviest volume of traffic will be Friday 2 June with nearly 20,000 passengers.

Once again, the most requested scheduled international flights are to large European cities such as London, Paris Barcelona, Budapest and Prague.

Roughly 1,800,000 passengers have travelled through the Naples airport during the first five months of 2006 which signifies an 8% increase over the figures for 2005. Specifically, during the period of April and May of this year, with roughly 934,000 passengers, there was a 16% increase as opposed to the same months in 2005.

The network of connections from the Naples International Airport for the 2006 Spring-Summer season comprised 28 international destinations, 12 domestic destinations and 50 charter flights.
