

PRESS NOTE

190,000 passengers expected during the two long spring weekends of 25 April and 1 May (traffic forecasts from 21 April to 2 May)

For the holidays of 25 April and 1 May and the two long spring weekends, from 21 April to 2 May, there will be approximately 190,000 passengers passing through the Naples airport: 150,000 travelling domestic routes, 67,000 on international routes and 18,000 on charter flights.

Specifically, during the first long weekend – from 21-25 April – forecasts call for some 80,000 arriving and departing passengers and the same level of passenger traffic is expected for the May 1 weekend (from 28 April to 2 May).

The heaviest volume of traffic is expected on 21 and 28 April with a forecast of approximately 20,000 passengers.

London, Paris, Barcelona, Berlin, Dublin, Prague and Sharm el Sheik are the top destinations for the two long spring weekends.

Naples, 21 April 2006