"We are very pleased – stated Letizia Saracino FlyOnAir Sales Manager -, to announce three flight from Naples airport. Especially the resumption of the Naples-Nice flight which represents not only an important route between two European capitals of tourism but, above all, re-establishes a relationship involving culture, fashion, trends and traditions between two cities which are symbols of the Mediterranean style. "

"We could not be anything but satisfied at the resumption of the Naples-Nice route by Flyonair which will become operative in June. The flight to Nice finally re-establishes direct contact between Naples and the Côte d'Azur. Furthermore, the flight to Pescara enhances the network of direct scheduled flights from our airport thereby bringing the total to 15 domestic destinations and 27 international destinations." - declared Marco Consalvo, General Manager of Gesac S.p.A., Naples airport management company.
