

Passenger traffic over the Christmas holidays: approximately 145,000 passengers forecasted for the period from 23 December 2003 to 6 January 2004.

The number of passengers at Naples International Airport between 23 December and 6 January expected to be in the area of 145,000, representing a 6% increase over the preceding year.

Average daily traffic forecasts call for roughly 9,700 passengers/day with 70% on domestic routes and the remaining 30% on international flights. The busiest travel days are anticipated to be Tuesday 30 December and 6 January with approximately 11,500 passengers/day.

Movements (takeoffs and landings) during the period in question are expected to be in the area of 1,850 with a daily average of 123 movements.

The top destinations selected this year are, once again, major European capitals such as London, Paris and Prague and Sharm el Sheik and Tunisia for those seeking more exotic vacations.