

Musical Review in the Airport

Neapolitan Music and Vocals: A Tribute to Tradition and Innovation

During the holiday season, from 20 December to 6 January, travellers passing through the airport will have the opportunity of discovering Neapolitan musical heritage thanks to the efforts of artists who interpret traditional music with the influence of cultures from around the world.

The review, entitled "Napoli Christmas Live", spans a range of popular melodies, Latin American and Mediterranean songs and will be presented according to the following schedule:

Wednesday 24 December (from 11.00 to 14.00)/ Tuesday 6 January (from 10.00 to 13.00)
"Napoli d'autore"

A fascinating, musical journey from Naples to Paris to Buenos Aires in which European songs are fused with the passion of Neapolitan tradition in a joyous medley of popular and ethnic music of southern Italy, Latin America and the Mediterranean.

Saturday 27 December (13.00 to 16.00) / *Saturday 3 January (11.00 to 14.00)

The Voices of Naples

A project infused with various Mediterranean expressive styles and the strong links between Neapolitan musical and theatrical traditions featuring an array of songs ranging from early Neapolitan songs to twentieth-century Neapolitan classics (Di Giacomo, Bovio).

Tuesday 30 December (from 11.00 to 14.00) Wednesday 31 December (from 11.00 to 14.00)

A Potpourri of Religious and Popular Songs

An ensemble of female voices whose members hail from classical and choral backgrounds. A medley of sacred music, pop repertoires and songs from both the Neapolitan and Anglo-Saxon traditions including a selection of renowned pieces from the world of musicals (Cats, Hair, Jesus Christ Superstar).
