

PRESS RELEASE

TRAFFIC DATA FORECASTS FOR THE EASTER HOLIDAYS

During the Easter holidays, from 25 to 29 March, approximately 64,000 passengers will be travelling through the Naples airport: 34,000 on domestic flights, 20,000 on international flights and 10,000 on charter flights.

During the period under consideration, there will be roughly 700 movements (takeoffs and landings) with an average of 140 movements per day which is equivalent to 70 daily flights. Today, 25 March, is the day in which the traffic flow will be most intense.

The most popular destinations for Neapolitans travelling on scheduled flights this Easter are Amsterdam, London, Paris and Barcelona, while Sharm El Sheik, Budapest, Prague and Vienna are the most requested charter destinations.

As of today, there is recent, pleasant addition for travellers in the airport this Easter: a novelty: "Piazzetta Napoli", a new open-air bar located outside the arrivals area, which serves exquisite coffee.

This spring, the Naples airport has further developed its international connections by inaugurating five new routes: four European destinations and the first intercontinental flight for New York.

Starting 21 March, thanks to the addition of a new charter flight operated by the Romanian carrier, Carpatair, the three times a week between Naples-Timisoara, Eastern European countries can be reached directly from Naples. Service to Vienna, operated by Austrian Airlines departing three times a week (Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday) began 22 March, and as of 29 March, even Ireland will be closer, with a flight to Dublin operated by Aer Lingus three times a week.

On 28 April, the low cost carrier Monarch Scheduled will provide daily service between Naples and Manchester, while 13 June the first intercontinental Naples-New York (JFK) connection, operated by the Italian carrier Eurofly, will be inaugurated. The new flight will depart from Naples three times a week (Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday) and from New York on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Naples, 25 March 2005