

PRESS RELEASE

AIR ITALY DOUBLES NAPLES FLIGHTS

As of 3 May, 2010, Air Italy plans to expand its Naples operations by increasing the current number of destinations served from 3 to 7.

In addition to the existing routes to Verona, Turin and Catania, new flights to Bergamo, Palermo, Olbia and Nice are to be added which will allow Air Italy to offer a total of 75 flights per week thus further consolidating its position at Naples Airport.

Air Italy considers Naples to be an important strategic centre of its network and, as of this year, is one of the main sponsors of the Naples football team.

The Naples – Bergamo route, offering both morning and evening service, is destined for business travellers as it aims to serve the entire area North-East of Milan. The following flight times will be in effect: Naples/Bergamo 7.00a.m./8.20 a.m. and 6.25p.m./7.45p.m.; Bergamo/Naples 8.55a.m./10.10 a.m. and 8.20 p.m./9.35 p.m.

The Naples - Palermo route will consolidate service to Sicily and is primarily aimed at leisure travellers. The following flight times will be in effect: Naples/Palermo 10.45a.m./11.30a.m.; Palermo/Naples 5.00p.m./5.50p.m:

Air Italy will also provide service to the Costa Smeralda (from 11 June) and the French Riviera (starting 26 July) with flights to Olbia and Nice offered at competitive prices several times a week which will be doubled during the summer season.

Air Italy currently provides service from Naples to Verona three times a week and to Catania and Turin two times a week.

Air Italy continues to focus great attention on the cost/quality ratio; a policy which has resulted to high levels of customer satisfaction. The company has also maintained high on-time performance levels: the average for the last 12 months was 94% with monthly peaks of 98%.

In launching the new flights, Air Italy has made 60,000 round trip tickets available at € 49 O/W all included.

“Naples represents a fundamental junction in air traffic. Air Italy is determined to cover the lack of service on certain important routes. Our objective is to become the leading airline at Capodichino” declared Giuseppe Gentile, President and CEO of Air Italy.

“Air Italy has continued to invest in our airport and has significantly increased the offer of flights from Naples. With the new service to Bergamo, Palermo and Nice in addition to the existing flights to Verona, Turin and Catania, Air Italy has notably augmented its network of domestic flights, which will undoubtedly be appreciated by our passengers,” stated Marco Consalvo, General Manager of Gesac S.p.A., Naples airport management company.

Air Italy is one of the foremost airlines in Italy. With a fleet of 12 next generation aircraft, the airline operates in Italy and abroad and carries over a million passengers a year. Air Italy controls Air Italy Egypt and Air Italy Polska. The company provides service from Turin, Verona, Milan Malpensa, Rome, Olbia, Naples, Bari, Catania, Bergamo and Palermo and foreign destinations include Fortaleza, Natal, Maceio, Porto Seguro, Salvador de Bahia (Brazil), Mombasa (Kenya), Zanzibar (Tanzania), Nossi Be (Madagascar), Mauritius and the Maldives, as well as all the most important tourist destinations in the Mediterranean. The company also operates charter flights with all of the most important Italian tour operators.
