

PRESS RELEASE

New Trawel Fly Naples-Bergamo Flight launched today

New Trawel Fly service for Bergamo begins today.

The flight, operative from Wednesday to Saturday, departs from Bergamo at 7:00 p.m. and from Naples at 9:05p.m.. Additionally, service will also be provided on Sundays with departures scheduled at 2:00p.m. from Bergamo and at 4:05 p.m. from Naples.

Boeing 737s, belonging to Astraesus Airlines – a Trawel Group partner, will be utilised for service between Naples and Bergamo. Fares are very competitive and start as low as 45 Euro (taxes excluded).

"Creating an incoming-based system in Italy is decisive, particularly in Naples which, through its hospitality industry, has great potential for formulating a multi-faceted offer. Trawel Fly represents an opportunity to provide connections oriented towards the various industries in the territory. We are prepared to offer our utmost co-operation in stimulating in-coming traffic through our sales network which is well situated in foreign markets as well as in Italy" declared Carmine Prencipe, the CEO of Trawel Group

For further information: www.trawelfly.com

Naples, 18 September, 2009